Remote Viewing Summary Report

Session #2CTCCW 128011

The Pineal Gland

(c) Lori Williams May 2017

Prior to viewing this target, I was given the following information:

The target is biological. Describe the target.

This target started out with more difficulty than most, due to the rather abstract nature of the target, itself. A gland isn't exactly something that I view daily! But, as we are trained, we just write down whatever comes to mind.

The monitor is trained not to give away any information, and to keep any cues as neutral and non-leading as possible. You will notice that the monitor only moves me to things I have mentioned as being a part of the target.

The first few pages contain the random information that initially came in as my conscious mind tried making sense of the information coming in from the subconscious. I often compare it to what it would be like to try and drink from a fire hose.

So please keep this in mind as you read through this report. Things start getting really interesting on Page 3.

The initial perceptions were as abstract as the gland, itself:

Physical Descriptors:

Grey
Rough-textured
Wrinkly
Fat
Short

Abstract Descriptors:

Mission-oriented
Commanded
Led by a Leader
and then... the strange perception of...
Starving

(Monitor asks: "Move to the 'starving' and describe)

Orange-salmon-flesh-colored
Soft texture
Squishy
Even-shaped
Leathery textured
Dark brown
Regal
In Charge
Essential
Far-Reaching
A "Necessary Evil"

Confused at this point, I wrote:

Confusing
Two-Sided (meaning more than one way to look at it)
Controversial
Vital
Having to do with "vital to produce food."

(Monitor: Move to Side 1 of the Issue and describe)

Essential
Vital
Outweighs the Means
"The means justify the end."
It is almost like they have to do something negative or bad in order to achieve a certain goal or end result. (This made me think of Monsanto creating GMO's to feed a massive population.)

(Monitor: Move to Side 2 and describe)

Fat
Saucy
Fancy
"Brotherhood"
Kindred

Like-Minded
Team-Building
Unifying
Necessary
Universal

(Monitor: Move to the "universal" and describe)

Far-reaching
Feels as though it reaches across the vastness of space...

(Then I mentally heard the words, "Time and Space are irrelevant." I have no idea in what context these words are intended.)

Very dark
Based on Truth

(Monitor: Move to the relationship between the "universal" and "the brotherhood" and describe):

Tight
Bonded
Kindred
Together for many years
Long-lasting

(I felt as though there was a nervousness on the part of someone or something - a "not wanting to be exposed -- very shy." There were aspects of Love and teamwork.

(Monitor: Move to the "based on truth" and describe)

The "Truth" is hard to define...
Captured
Wet
Alone
Lonely
Belief Systems are involved
Sordid in some way.

(At this point, the Monitor asked me if I wanted mid-loading, and I said yes. I was then told "The Target is an aspect of human Biology. Describe the target." Instantly, I said, "It is the Pineal Gland!" I immediately moved to the Purpose:

Powerful
Dynamic
Far Reaching
It serves as an antenna
Pulls in signals
Transmits signals
Communicates on a level below our awareness
A very high level
"It must be nurtured"
"Held sacrosanct"

(Purpose of the Pineal Gland, continued):

Communication
Connects consciousness
(Visual of the cosmos...)
Signals reaching far across the vastness of space
Shaped like the old Vicks Cough Drops!

Physically, it is warm, wet and small
But cosmically, it is powerful, vast and far-reaching!
It acts as a link, a beacon

(Monitor: Move to the "beacon" aspect and describe):

Ancient Purposeful

(Now begins a conversation as I, the viewer, find myself really connecting to the target:)

Lori: Let me understand the Purpose.

(Answer:) We are the Ancient Ones, from whom humanity was seeded.
The aspect to which you refer (the Pineal Gland) is a tether -- and a signal so that we can communicate subconsciously with humanity and humanity can access higher self and learning while sleeping and meditating.

(Monitor: How can this be accessed or enhanced or stimulated or utilized?)

(Answer:) Shades of blue stimulate this part of the Human Being.
Visualizing a brilliant peacock blue, looking at blue shades, is calming and stimulating.
Rest, deep breathing, clean air, Nature, exercise in beautiful surroundings, consuming healthy vital green foods, Prayer, meditation. Quiet. Loving thoughts. Gratitude.
Generosity. Fear. Fear stimulates and activates communication when utilized correctly.

(Move to the Biological Aspect and describe):

(At this point, I felt the need to summarize in my own words what I was understanding):

It is like an electronic bug - but instead of being used for eavesdropping, it is used to connect humans with higher thoughts, information, other dimensions, etc. It is not inert or obsolete. IT is being used even when the host is unaware. Almost like we are leading double lives.

(I asked, "What else is there I need to hear?")

(Answer:)

It's juicy.

"Cables to another world."

"We are more than this body."

"What the heart is to Love, this aspect (The Pineal Gland) is to the Universe."

(I asked, "Is there anything we can do to increase our understanding or awareness of it?")

Yes and no. You can focus on getting time alone in Nature and focus on Nature's beauty. But there will always be aspects to its functioning of which you will never be aware, because that is its dual nature -- the heart of its purpose -- It is what makes this reality bearable. Even though you don't feel the relief consciously.

(Lori:)

So this reality is often really tough. But we receive comfort, wisdom, and relief when sleeping or meditating, through this aspect (The Pineal Gland) of our being. We may not consciously be aware of it, but we receive communication of a comforting nature -- Guidance, Reassurance, and the Respite of a visit "Home" -- even when we don't recall it later.

(End of Session.)

Final Notes:

So what can we make of this intriguing session?

It seems that the purpose of the Pineal Gland is to act as an antenna, to help that part of ourselves that we are not consciously aware of to connect with the help we need, when we need it. And it seems that this happens when we are most able to let go: During sleep.
